

SHIPPING NETWORK

PROPOSED EDITORIAL STRUCTURE & CONTENTS

October 2006 issue

ICS news

Regional focus - Black Sea

Our journalist Barry Cross will talk to Russian investors in the Ukraine, who aim to bring capacity up to 4 million TEU, and shipping agents in Georgia, the gateway to Central Asia. He will look at issues and developments in the region as a whole, considering the main issues affecting trade in Istanbul and some of the broader issues affecting brokers in that area.

Feature – KG Financing

German Branch Chairman Marc Buchholz will explain the importance of KGs to the German economy, the potential downsides of KGs (for example overinvestment in tonnage), and the future for KGs.

Feature – Are port agents a dying breed?

Fergus Kuek poses the question – are port agents a dying breed? He looks at the external environment, trends and threats as well as the internal competitive environment

Recent years have seen the quickening of the pace of change for major UK charities. A look at their current state

The UK Charity scene-Mission to Seafarers

Mission to Seafarers talks us through a “day in the life of” of one of its chaplains in its 150th year.

Education – METL

Rita Barnish reports